Governor congratulates Arunachal Pradesh Police on conferment of President's Police Colour

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his congratulations to the officers and personnel of all ranks of Arunachal Pradesh Police and their families on the conferment of the prestigious President's Police Colour, the highest honour bestowed upon a police force in recognition of its distinguished service to the nation. He wished the entire Arunachal Pradesh Police fraternity continued success and urged them to carry this honour with humility, uphold the trust of the people and serve with courage, compassion and integrity. He said that the greatest reward for the police force would always be the confidence, safety and happiness of the people they serve.

The honour was conferred by the Union Home Minister, Shri Amit Shah, at an impressive ceremony organised at the Police Training Centre, Banderdewa.

The Governor said that the President's Police Colour was both a recognition of past service and an inspiration for the future. He expressed confidence that this distinguished honour would fill every police personnel with renewed pride, enthusiasm and a stronger sense of responsibility towards the people.

The Governor encouraged the force to remain approachable, compassionate and sensitive to the needs of ordinary citizens, particularly women, children, senior citizens and vulnerable sections of society. He also called for greater community engagement, professional excellence, technological upgradation and firm action against drug abuse and other social challenges.

PRO to Governor
