

Soni assures governor to bolster tourism; Institute for Hotel Management soon

ITANAGAR, Nov 05: The Union Minister State for Tourism Ambika Soni announced that an Institute for Hotel Management along with a hostel stands sanctioned with fund allocation of Rs 10 crores and Rs 2 crores for each respectively will be given by her Ministry soon to the state. She said this when the governor Gen J J Sing met her on Nov 3 to discuss about ways and means to bolster tourism sector in the state.

Committed to see the State blossom as new symbol of all round development and to provide holistic growth and economic empowerment for all the Arunachalees, Governor Gen J.J. Singh has been parleying with Centre after he took over as the governor.

While briefing the Minister on his vision for development of Arunachal as Tourist destination, Gen Singh dwelled in length on the concept of soulful tourism, eco tourism and development of adventure hubs.

He also discussed the promotional strategy for bringing Arunachal Pradesh on world tourism map.

The Governor also met Planning Commission Deputy Chairman Montek Singh Ahluwalia and Principal Secretary to Prime Minister T.K.A. Nair and held elaborate discussions on developmental issues of Arunachal Pradesh especially the implementation of Prime Minister's package.