Governor meets Union Home Minister

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), met the Union Home and Cooperation Minister, Shri Amit Shah, at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, on 22nd November 2026.

The Governor conveyed his sincere appreciation to the Union Minister for his visit and for taking the time to interact with the people of the Frontier State. He said that the Union Home Minister's presence in Arunachal Pradesh reflected the continued attention and commitment of the Government of India towards the development, security and well-being of the people of the Northeast.

During the meeting, the Governor discussed key development priorities of the State and highlighted challenges arising from its difficult terrain, remote habitations, long international border and strategic geographical location. He emphasised the need for sustained support in strengthening border infrastructure, improving connectivity, enhancing security arrangements and accelerating development in remote and border areas.

The Governor also conveyed his sincere gratitude to the Union Home Minister for presenting the prestigious President's Police Colour to Arunachal Pradesh Police. He said the honour was a proud and historic milestone for the State and a tribute to the courage, discipline, professionalism and sacrifices of generations of police personnel. He also acknowledged the Union Home Minister's encouragement and support in strengthening the State's security apparatus.

The Governor expressed confidence that the continued guidance and support of the Union Government would further accelerate Arunachal Pradesh's journey towards peace, security and inclusive development.

PRO to Governor
