Union Home Minister plants sapling at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar

The Union Home and Cooperation Minister, Shri Amit Shah, planted a sapling of Indian Sandalwood (Santalum album) in the front lawn of Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, on 22nd November 2026.

Continuing the cherished tradition of green initiatives of Lok Bhavan, Itanagar, the Union Minister participated in the plantation reflecting a shared commitment to environmental conservation, nurturing biodiversity and preserving nature for future generations. The lush green campus of Lok Bhavan, enriched with diverse flowering plants, indigenous trees, orchid houses and a thriving kitchen garden, stands as an example of harmony between nature and human responsibility.

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), and officers and staff were present.
