GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

Press Communiqué

Governor extends Guru Nanak Jayanti greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), extended his warm greetings and best wishes to the people of the State, particularly our Sikh brethren on the sacred occasion of the 557th Prakash Utsav of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji, He wished that the auspicious occasion would strengthen the bonds of love, mutual respect and brotherhood, enriching the beautiful spirit of unity in diversity in our society.

In his message, the Governor said that Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji's life and teachings embody the eternal values of truth, compassion, equality, humility and selfless service. His profound message of universal brotherhood, transcended barriers of caste, creed and religion, reminding humanity that all people are equal and deserve dignity and respect. He taught us that true spirituality lies not merely in rituals, but in purity of thought, sincerity of action, honest living and service to fellow human beings. His timeless teachings continue to guide us towards a life of righteousness, harmony and compassion. Let us draw inspiration from his noble ideals and renew our commitment to building a peaceful, inclusive and caring society, where every individual lives with dignity and every community grows together in mutual trust and harmony, he said.

On this auspicious occasion, I join our Sikh brethren in offering prayers to Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji and wish for peace, happiness and prosperity for all, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 23, 2026