The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended warm greetings to the people of the State on Constitution Day. He wished that the day inspires all to renew our commitment to preserve, protect, defend, and abide by our Constitution.

The Governor said the Constitution, adopted on November 26, 1949, and enforced on January 26, 1950, remains the bedrock of Indian democracy, guaranteeing Justice, Liberty, Equality and Fraternity. Its enduring strength lies in guiding governance, legislation, administration and the judiciary while safeguarding every citizen's rights and dignity. He urged everyone to reaffirm their commitment to upholding the ideals and values enshrined in the Constitution of India.

The Governor paid heartfelt tribute to the freedom fighters and visionary leaders, particularly Dr. Rajendra Prasad and Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, whose dedication and wisdom shaped this remarkable national legacy.

Calling upon citizens to honour the Constitution, especially its Fundamental Duties, the Governor encouraged everyone to rise above differences, embrace collective responsibility, and contribute wholeheartedly towards building a peaceful, progressive and prosperous Arunachal Pradesh and India.
