MESSAGE

On the festive occasion of Magh Bihu, I extend my heartiest greetings to all the people of Arunachal Pradesh. May the festival usher peace, prosperity in the whole of the northern eastern region.

Magh Bihu, which is also known as Bhogali Bihu is derived from the word Bhoga meaning eating or enjoyment. The festival denotes the cultivation of the winter paddy harvest.

I offer my prayers to Almighty to promote the feelings of love and peace on this occasion and pray for ever-lasting peace and brotherhood amongst the people of Assam and Arunachal Pradesh.

Gen JJ Singh,
