

Press Release No 1156

Developing tourism in East Siang will generate livelihood opportunities –Governor

Pasighat, Nov 18: Arunachal Pradesh Governor (Retd) Gen JJ Singh has said East Siang has huge scope for tourism and once tourism sector is developed, it would facilitate in providing livelihood to a large number of people of East Siang in particular and the state as a whole.

Gen. Singh during a short visit to Pasighat on the way to Vijayanagar (Changlang) on November 18 underscored the needs for exposure tours for youth and entrepreneurs in tourism sector.

He also held discussions at the Pasighat Aerodrome on various developmental issues with the Deputy Commissioner (Incharge) SC Debnath and HoDs and further suggested to address on priority basis to harness the full potentials of the district. While stressing on capacity building and employment generations, he directed the officers to implement all the welfare projects and schemes with effectively for better future and prosperity of the state, reports DIPRO.

Sd/ D.Dodum, PRO