

PRESS RELEASE NO- 467

Governor congratulates Everester Tine and Anshu

Itanagar, May 12: Arunachal Pradesh Governor Gen JJ Singh has congratulated both Miss Tine Mena and Anshu Jamsenpa, for successfully scaling the highest peak in the world, the Mount Everest on 9th and 12th May 2011 respectively. He has conveyed that it is one of the proudest moments for the people of Arunachal Pradesh, especially for every Arunachalee girl. It is also a matter of personal happiness for me as I had flagged off your expedition from Raj Bhavan on 1st April 2011, the Governor added in the congratulatory message. Two years back it was our own Tapi Mra and today it is you two, the first and second Arunachalee women to reach the summit of Mount Everest. It reflects your passion, self-belief and commitment towards your goal. It is indeed an inspiring feat for all the youth of the State, said Gen Singh, while extending heartiest congratulations on behalf of people of Arunachal Pradesh, reports PRO to Governor.

Sd/- Ome Tayeng, Asst PRO