

PRESS RELEASE NO- 513

Governor congratulates Mra and Phuntsok

Itanagar, June 1: Arunachal Pradesh Governor Gen JJ Singh has congratulated Everester Tapi Mra and mountaineer Lobsang Phuntsok of Tawang for reaching the summit of Mount Kosciuszko in Australia. Congratulating them, on behalf of people of Arunachal Pradesh, the Governor said that they have made all Arunachalee proud, reports PRO to Governor.

Reposing his faith that Mra will leave footmarks on all the seven highest summits of the world, Gen Singh wished him for success in Mra's Seven Summit Mission.

In a separate congratulation letter to Phuntsok, Gen Singh expressed his hope that Australian accomplishment is only the beginning of Lobsang's mountaineering feats and said, I look forward to see you on the summits of world highest peaks including Mount Everest.

The Seven Summits, a well-known mountaineering objective, are the highest peaks on each of the seven continents, which includes Everest (8848 meters in Nepal, Asia, Aconcagua (6962 meters) in Argentina, South America, Denali also known as Mount McKinley (6195 meters) in Alaska, North America, Kilimanjaro (5963 meters) in Tanzania, Africa, Elbrus (5633) Russia, Europe, Vinson Massif(4897) Ellsworth Range, Antarctica, Carstensch Pyramid (4884 meters) Indonesia's (t/m) is Oceania's highest mountain and Mount Kosciuszko (7310 meters) in Australia.

Tapi has climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro, Africa and now the highest peak in Australia adds the PRO.

Sd/- Ome Tayeng, Asst.PRO