

PRESS RELEASE NO- 59

At home function at Raj Bhavan

Itanagar, Jan. 26: Arunachal Pradesh Governor Gen JJ Singh was 'At Home' with distinguished citizens of Arunachal Pradesh and school children on Raj Bhavan lawn on Jan 26 last. The invitees from different walks of life attended the ceremony to greet the Governor and the State first lady. As part of Republic Day celebration, 'At Home' make an important feature of the day long programme, reports PRO to Governor

The entire Raj Bhavan, especially the Northern Green, which makes the part of nine-hole Raj Bhavan golf course, was specially decorated to receive the distinguished gathering. Flower beds of the Bhavan filled with blooming flowers of different species enriched the festivity. Raj Bhavan officials and school children from Vivekananda Kendriya Vidhyalaya, Chimpu in the traditional attires were there to receive the guests, while adding colours to the event.

The 'At Home' function began as the Arunachal Pradesh Police band from Police Training Center, Banderdewa played the National Anthem.

Chief Minister Dorjee Khandu, his cabinet colleagues, senior officials, social workers, educationists, intellectuals, senior citizens, distinguish achievers, NCC and Scouts and Guides were present at the function.

With the APP band playing tunes of patriotic songs, the Governor and the State first lady, Anupama Singh, intermingled with the august gathering. The School children, NCC and scouts and guides had a field day as took the opportunity to meet the Governor and the First lady.

Sd/ Ing Tayeng,PO