AAPSU delegation meets Governor

Itanagar, Mar.2: A delegation of All Arunachal Pradesh Students' Union (AAPSU) led by its President Takam Tatung called on the Governor General (Retd) J.J. Singh at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 2nd March 2012. Interacting with the students, the Governor urged upon the student leaders to be responsible individuals and always work for the betterment of the student community and the people as a whole, reports PRO to Governor.

Giving a patient hearing to the challenges of the students, the Governor assured his best efforts for providing impetus to the development programmes and educational infrastructure in the interior areas of the State.

Stating that lack of proper road communication in the interior areas like Tali has resulted in slow progress in socio economic activities such as infrastructure, education and health, the Governor said that he will push for speedy implementation of the road projects. The road projects must be implemented within the given timeframe, following prescribed procedure and utmost transparency must be maintained. He further emphasized that the district administration should be involved in all the development works within the district.

Earlier, showing photographs of dilapidated school buildings and hostels, the AAPSU leaders apprised the Governor on the lack of avenues for proper education in the interior areas of Kurung Kumey district.

Giving firsthand account of the plight of the people of Tali circle in Kurung Kumey, the student leaders informed the Governor on scarcity of ration items and lack of proper medical facilities, employment opportunities and modern technology in agrarian activities.

The AAPSU delegation, who returned from Tali recently, submitted a six-point memorandum and pleaded the Governor to initiate for early completion of Yangte-Tali road, construction of Tamen-Limeking road via Tali and Pip Sorang, adequate supply of ration items, proper health facilities and posting of police personnel at Tali. While calling for inclusion of Tali-Pip Sorang under tourist circuit map, they also requested the Governor to recommend for exploration of hydropower potential of the district.

Ankur Garg Secretary to Governor and Secretary Planning was present in the meeting, adds the report.
