

PRESS RELEASE

Governor awarded Gandhi Seva medal

Itanagar, April, 27: Arunachal Pradesh Governor General (retired) J.J.Singh, was today honoured with Gandhi Seva Medal at Raj Bhawan by Gandhi Global Family for his contributions to the nation as the Chief of the Army earlier and Governor of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Medal was presented to him by a team of volunteers of Global Gandhi Family lead by its Vice President, Padmashri SP Varma.

The Governor, while receiving the medal appreciated and congratulated the selfless services of the members of the Gandhi Global Family for the cause of the community and the country and urged them to keep it going. World over knows India as the Country of Mahatma Gandhi and an Indian is received with respect and honour because he belong to that great and magnificent nation called India, where a man like Gandhiji was born.

He was a great Icon and apostle of peace and we feel proud be a member of that country where he was born, he added.

He is respected and revered world over and we being an Indian need to do lot more to spread the message of Gandhiji particularly the philosophy of non-violence, peace and patriotism, the Governor suggested. Peace and non-violence being the pre-conditions for prosperity every body should solve the problems through peace, he added.

In Arunachal, Gandhiji is a household name, people of the remotest place know him and his contributions to the nation .

Sd/-

Denga Bengia,PRO,
RajBhawan, Itanagar.