PRESS RELEASE

Work towards 'Swachh Bharat' and create awareness on policies and programmes of Central and State Governments: Governor to NGOs

The members of Arunachal Vikas Parishad (AVP), Itanagar led by Shri Pratik Potom, President, AVP met the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Hon'ble Shri P.B. Acharya today at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 29th January 2017.

The Governor stressed upon the need to promote education, set up hospitals, orphanages across the State, as this would not only empower them but also strengthen the society leading to overall development.

The NGO's and social organizations should work with devotion towards the betterment of the society at large, without any prejudice, with a sense of patriotism without any self agendas.

The first identity of an individual is his or her mother tongue. The Governor further emphasised the need to learn, teach and promote mother dialects or regional languages even at university levels and beyond that.

The Governor suggested that while working with rural communities, the NGOs must work towards 'Swachh Bharat' and create awareness on policies and programmes of Central and State Governments particularly Jan Dhan Yojana so that poorest of poor avail benefits.
