

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Use the time of repentance for inculcate new skills: Governor to inmates

Hon'ble Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya visited the District Jail, Jullang, which coincided with Martyrs' Day. To mark the occasion, the Governor shared the importance of the Day with the inmates and distributed fruits to them.

Giving a patient hearing to the problem and challenges of the inmates, the Governor advised them to reform themselves into a better person. He said that jail is place for reforms. They should use the time of repentance for inculcate new skills so that once out of the jail, they can earn respectable living.

The Governor directed the jail authority to provide basic necessary items, including games & sports items. Games & Sports activities help in reducing mental tension and also assist the inmates to come out of their mental trauma. He also directed them to provide, free legal aids and all other relevant provisions to be provided be from Government.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, January 30, 2017