PRESS RELEASE

Governor meets Bankers

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya met the representatives of different Banks in the State at Raj Bhavan at 1st February, 2017. They discussed on the financial inclusion programmes and Corporate Social Responsibilities.

The Governor exhorted the bankers to put in their best efforts towards State and Central Programmes particularly Jan Dhan Yojana and insurance schemes towards financial empowerment of the people.

The Governor said that targeted group, i.e. poorest of poor doesn't know about the schemes. Therefore, it is the prime duty of each of us to create awareness and enroll them under various schemes. The Governor advised the bankers to entrust at least five staffs in the programmes.

India is going for cashless economy and you are the people to make it success. Every banker has to strengthen this moment, the Governor underscored.

The Governor said that each one of us are human being first, citizen of India second and then comes whatever designation or office they hold.
