

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor and State's First Lady celebrate Holi with differently abled children and Jail inmates

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri PB Acharya and State's First Lady Smt Kavita Acharya celebrated the festive occasion of Holi with differently abled children and Jail inmates at Itanagar on 13th March 2017.

The Governor and the State's First Lady visited the Donyi-Polo Mission School for the hearing and visually impaired, Chimpu and District Jail, Jullang and shared the festive occasion with the children and inmates. They distributed sweets, specially prepared in Raj Bhavan, Itanagar for them.

The Governor exhorted the students of DPMSHVI, Chimpu to instill confidence and self-belief. You are second to none. Prepare yourself for the future and contribute towards the peace and progress of the State and country, the Governor said.

Joining the inmates in praying for harmony and development of the State, the Governor advised them to have positive approach in life and move forward.

Earlier in the morning, the Governor and the State's First Lady offered prayers in the temples of the Capital City.

Later in the day, the First Couple also observed the festival of colours with Raj Bhavan staffs and officials attached to Raj Bhavan in the Raj Bhavan compound, Itanagar. Local MLA and Parliamentary Secretary UD & Housing, Town Planning, Municipal Affairs and PWD Shri Techhi Kasso and local Town Councilor of Raj Bhavan ward i.e. Ward No-18 Shri Gora Lotak, joined them in the celebration.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, March 13, 2017