PRESS RELEASE

Governor emphasizes on reinforcing spirit of fellowship amongst the people and with people of rest of the country

Representatives of Vishwa Hindu Parishad (VHP), Arunachal Prant, Vivekananda Kendra, Ekal Vidyalaya, Arun Jyoti and Friends of Tribal Society led by Dr. Bolet Jongkey, Working President, VHP called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 9th May 2017. They briefed the Governor about their works and challenges in the State particularly in the field of education in rural areas.

Interacting with the representatives, the Governor felicitated them for their good works in spreading education in the far-flung villages. He said that maximum Government resources are allotted for education and roads but in both sectors, it is not up to the expectation of the people. The local people themselves have to improve the credibility of the government schools.

The Governor called upon the NGOs and the people to do away with monetary support and other assistances from outside. Begging will destroy you, your work culture and moral values. Stand on your own feet and be the change, the Governor said, while reposing his faith that the people have the potential and strengthen to do it.

We are the only hope and we have to change the system and mindset which are eroding our society. Time does not wait for anybody. We have to stand against injustice in any form and at the same time walk fast. We have to prepare our younger generation for the future, the Governor said.

Instill useful and practical knowledge and skill in the youth to ensure a bright future for all, he underscored.

The Governor emphasized on reinforcing spirit of fellowship amongst the people and with people of rest of the country. He assured the representative to assist them in such projects.
