PRESS RELEASE

Please provide us teachers: pleaded students to Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya in his third leg of four-day district tour made a surprise visit to Government Middle School, Puchigecko, Upper Subansiri District on 29th June 2017. Established in 1979, the school is in dilapidated.

The Governor was astonished and pain to see condition of the school. Walls are wrecked, roofs are leaking and window panes are missing or broken.

Inspite of long journey and busy schedule, the Governor took time out to interact with the students and teachers. He enquired about mid-day meal, books and teachers. He was informed that due to non-allocation of fund and ration, the children were not provided with mid-day meals in the month of June 2017, although the session started a month earlier.

The students, Master Takek Haam, Class VII and Miss Jumri Lomdak, Class VII with folded hands pleaded the Governor to initiate to provide English and Mathematics teachers. They also pleaded for teacher quarters so that the teachers are regular.

Touched by the request of the students and surprise by the concerns for their teachers, the Governor advised the district administration to look into the issues at the earliest. He also emphasised that the students must be provided with mid-day meals on regular basis

Deputy Commissioner Shri A.K. Singh, Superintendent of Police Shri Tarung Gusar were present on the occasion.
