PRESS RELEASE

Governor appreciates AVBDO

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya conveyed his appreciation to the Arunachal Voluntary Blood Donation Organisation (AVBDO) for successfully organising the voluntary blood donation camp organised at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 2nd August 2017.

Felicitating each and every member of Arunachal Voluntary Blood Donation Organization and convey his best wishes for its future endeavours, the Governor said that since its inception, the AVBDO, with its 1000 plus dedicated volunteers comprising mainly of students has conducted sixty one (61) camps and collected around 84,686 units of blood so far, saving many precious lives and brought relief and happiness to numerous helpless and needy families. It is due to the benevolent and valued services of this organization, that the State of Arunachal Pradesh has been honoured with 'Award of Excellence' by the Ministry of Health and Family Welfare, Govt. of India for working towards 100% Voluntary Blood Donation, he added.

I am pleased to note that since 2015, this philanthropic organization is also taking up welfare projects for destitute mothers and abandoned children, he said.

In appreciation to successful voluntary blood donation camp and to motivate the Arunachal Voluntary Blood Donation Organization, on the advice of the Governor Shri P.B. Acharya, some used office furniture from the Governor's Secretariat were provided to the Non-Governmental Organisation.

The Deputy Secretary to Governor Shri Minik Damin handed over the office items to Shri Ramesh Jeke, Chairman, AVBDO at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 3rd August 2017.
