Governor conveys Chingdang Festival greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Chingdang Festival. He expressed his hope that that the festivity will ushers-in peace, good harvest and prosperity for all.

In his message, the Governor said that Chingdang is the most popular festival of the Sajolang Tribe of Arunachal Pradesh. During the festival, the community worships their deities and also the nature for the wellbeing of the mankind. Such traditions and practices have always helped in the continuation of the treasured cultural heritage and preservation of flora and fauna.

I am sanguine that this festivity will promote the conservation of green environment and safeguard our inherited legacy, he further said.

On this occasion, my wife Smt Neelam Misra and I join the people of Arunachal Pradesh in offering our prayer to the Mother Nature for Her blessings. May the coming year bring prosperity and a bumper harvest, the Governor wished.
