PRESS RELEASE

Maintain highest standards of news reporting professionalism and constructive journalism: Governor to journalists

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has conveyed his warm greetings to all the members of Arunachal Press Club on the occasion of National Press Day.

In his message, the Governor said that the Media is now the nerve centre of our society. While disseminating information to the people, Media is playing a vital and benevolent role in all walks of our life. With its commitment to uphold truth, probity and objectivity, the Media is helping in building up a just and corruption free society. He expressed his hope that this occasion will inspire all members of Arunachal Press Club and the participants in the event to maintain highest standards of news reporting professionalism and constructive journalism.

The Media must continue to raise voice against terrorism and support the preservation of environment. Special attention should be paid by the Media for the wellbeing of the women, children and downtrodden, the Governor emphasised.
