PRESS RELEASE

Governor conveys Podi Barbi greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his greetings to the people of the State. He also offered his prayers to the Almighty for the bounty of peace and well being to everyone in the society during the festival.

In his message, the Governor said that every tribal festival offers an ambience to showcase the unique cultural heritage of its followers. It forms an essential link to carry forward the concerned tribe's vibrant and rich customs and traditions. With vast diversity of culture and tradition our State is a true reflection of unity in diversity. Podi Barbi is one such festival, he added.

May this festival bring happiness, good harvest and prosperity to all of us in the State, the Governor wished.
