PRESS RELEASE

Governor condoles the demise of former Home Minister

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has condoled the sudden demise of former Home Minister of the State Shri Tako Dabi.

In his condolence message to Smt Miti Moyong Dabi, the Governor said that he is pained and grieved to hear the sudden passing away of her renowned husband Shri Tako Dabi the former Home Minister of Arunachal Pradesh. In his departure, the State has lost a Statesman, the society has lost an eminent worker and people have lost a great contributor to their welfare. His sudden demise has caused a great vacuum and an irreparable loss to the whole State in general and to the Galo Community in particular, he further said.

On behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, my wife Smt Neelam Misra and on my own behalf, I convey our deep condolences to you and the members of the bereaved family. May Almighty Donyi Polo give you the fortitude to bear this bereavement and grant eternal peace to the departed soul, the Governor said in his message.
