Governor meets District Heads of Departments

Set target and bring results: Governor to HoDs

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr) B.D. Mishra (Retd.), who is on a four-day district tour, met the District Heads of Departments at Aalo, West Siang District on 20th January 2019.

The Governor said that the District and State will progress, develop and go forward when all government officers are transparent in their dealings, honest in their action, accountable in their approach. They must lend themselves to audit, review and when ever required mid course correction,. Your conscience must satisfy you that you have done something for the people to the best of your ability, he said.

Set target and bring results, the Governor advised the government officials present at the meeting.

Sharing te details of his meeting with Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM), the Governor asked the officers to motivate, encourage and support the people, particularly the youth towards entrepreneurship through 'Start ups'. Only job seeking attitude for the youth will not solve their problems. They must become job providers venturing into the realm of productivity.

Expressing his concern about the farmers, the Governor advised the officers to go to their area and resolve their challenges. Aim of district Agriculture and horticulture officers should be to introduce new crops, plants and fresh and dry fruit plantation to aid the farmers in doubling their income.

The Governor reviewed flagship Central Government Programmes and also discussed with the District Officers about the issue of textbooks, mid-day meal in schools, and completion of syllabus, recruitments for the Armed Forces, loans for Start Ups, power and electrification of villages, handloom, handicrafts, road construction and women and child welfare.

The Deputy Commissioner Smt Swetika Sachan, Superintendent of Police Shri Jummar Basar and Heads of Department briefed the governor about the developmental achievements and progress in the District.

Brig. C. Dayalan, Commander 5 Mountain Brigade, Aalo was also present in the meeting. The Comander briefed the Governor about te operational preparedness of his troops and the civil population welfare measures being under taken by the Army.
