PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Ali Aye Ligang and Donggin greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra has extended his greetings to the people of the State, particularly the Missing and Adi Communities on the festive occasion of Ali-Aye-Ligang and Donggin.

In his message, the Governor said that Ali-Aye-Ligang and Donggin festivals harbinger the new agro-horticultural season, which is celebrated with great fervour and gaiety,. The rituals and the festivity associated with these festivals are performed to invoke the blessings of the Almighty for good harvest. These festivals continue to help in preserving our age-old customs and traditions. I hope that these festivals, which have been handed down to us from the days of yore, from generation to generation, will continue to preserve the cherished rich emotional, cultural and social traditions of the Missing and Adi Communities, he said.

May this festivity bring bumper harvest, prosperity, fraternity and happiness for all, the Governor wished in his message.
