

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor attends launching programme of UP Governor's autobiography

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) attended the launching of the Assamese edition of 'Charaiveti Charaiveti' (Marching Ahead), an autobiography of Shri Ram Naik, Governor of Uttar Pradesh at Shrimanta Shankardeva Kalakshetra, Guwahati on 6th July 2019.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor said that the autobiography reflects the exemplary, extra ordinary, dedicated and visionary life of Shri Ram Naik. It also shows his commitment towards upliftment of needy people, social development, patriotism and national pride.

With Assamese edition of the autobiography, the Governor said that the people of the North Eastern region will know more about Shri Ram Naik and will be inspired by his personality.

The Governor, while highlighting the personality, challenges and achievements of Shri Ram Naik said that he was born in different era and faced all challenges with confidence. Greatest challenge for a person is his health and Shri Naik overcame with his regular practice of Surya Namaskar Yoga. It was his resolute determination due to which he could prevail over the challenges in his run of duties. As constitutional head, he kept away unqualified individuals from Uttar Pradesh Vidhan Parishad the Governor said.

The Governor recalled the achievements of Shri Naik as Railway minister and said that the people also remember him for cancelling the cooking gas connection long waiting time as Petroleum Minister under Atal Bihari Bajpai government. He also recalled his personal interaction with Shri Naik on improving academic environment in Universities and institutes of higher studies in Uttar Parishad.

Shri Ram Naik, Governor of Uttar Pradesh and the author of 'Charaiveti Charaiveti', Prof. Jagdish Mukhi, Governor of Assam, Shri Tathagata Roy, Governor of Meghalaya and Shri Ganga Prasad, Governor of Sikkim, along with Shri Sarbananda Sonowal, Chief Ministers and Shri Devendra Fadnavis, Chief Minister of Maharashtra were present on the occasion.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, July 6, 2019