Governor conveys greetings on the occasion of Guru Nanak Jayanti

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Guru Nanak Jayanti. He expressed his hope that the occasion will strengthen the splendid spirit of unity in diversity in the society.

In his message to the people, the Governor said that Guru Nanak Dev ji showed all the path of peace, harmony and righteousness. Guru ji's teachings of love, compassion, truthfulness and sacrifice are of eternal relevance. His divine message of purity of thought, excellence of conduct and tolerant temperament is ever very essential to transform the society for better, he said.

On this blessed occasion, I appeal to all my fellow citizens to imbibe Guru Nanak Dev ji's noble teachings and rededicate to the cause of national unity and integrity, the Governor appealed in his message.
