The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) had conveyed his warm greetings and good wishes to the people of the State on the festive occasion of Nyethrii-Dow. He expressed his hope that the festival of Aka (Hrusso) community of Arunachal Pradesh will usher-in peace, harmony and prosperity for all.

In his message to the people on the occasion, the Governor said that the festivals bring all closer to their rich cultural heritage and the traditions, which are unique, because they offer an opportunity for everyone to get together for bonhomie and joyous moments. The ultimate benefit of a festival is a shared happy experience for those who participate in it. This reinforces the social bonds between the people who celebrate the event and shows strength and solidarity to others, he said.

On this festive occasion, I join my Aka (Hrusso) brethren in offering prayers to Almighty God for peace and socio-economic wellbeing of all, the Governor said in his message.
