Governor extends Donggin and Ali-aye Ligang greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended warm greetings to the people of the State in general and Adi and Mishing communities in particular on the festive occasion of Donggin and Ali-aye Ligang. He expressed hope that the festivals will usher-in peace and prosperity for all.

In his message, the Governor said that in the State, agriculture is the prime occupation of the rural communities. Accordingly our people celebrate a large number of agriculture related festivals. The Festivals of 'Donggin' of Adi Community and 'Ali-aye Ligang' of Mishing Community are also agricultural prosperity linked pursuits by the people. It is a thanks giving prayer and celebration by our farmers for a good harvest. I am sanguine that the occasion will continue to be an important part of our tribal culture and festivity, he said.

May the occasion of Donggin and Ali-aye Ligang bring peace, contentment and happiness in the society, the Governor wished in his message.
