Governor conveys Sangken Festival greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the people of the State on the auspicious occasion of Sangken. He expressed his hope that the sacred event and the festivity associated with the Sangken Festival will usher in peace and happiness for all.

In his message, the Governor said that Sangken festival is the time to ritually and ceremoniously bathe the images of Lord Buddha. This also heralds the New Year and the people sprinkle water on each other as a sign of greeting and goodwill, he said.

May this festival of our Khampti and Singpho brethren bind each one of us in fraternal love, amity, and affection and inspire us to strive for the unity, progress, and well being of all, the Governor wished in his message.

The Governor has appealed to all the citizens of the State to observe the precautions against COVID-19 and make full effort in checking COVID-19 spread.
