First Lady visits State Museum

The First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra visited the Jawaharlal Nehru State Museum, Itanagar on 16th April 2021. She appreciated the adequate display of traditional attires of various tribes of the State.

Accompanied by Secretary Textile and Handicrafts Shri Swapnil Naik, the First Lady visited and complemented the textile section of the museum. She suggested that allocation of a place for live display of traditional loin loom weaving in the State Museum could be appropriately considered to make the loin weaving popular amongst our youth.

The First Lady of the State thanked everyone for organising the museum well. She said that her visit was educative and enriching experience. She expressed gratitude Dr. SK Ghosh for conducting her visit.
