Governor conveys greetings on Raksha Bandhan

Develop all inclusive tolerance and mutual respect and strengthen the spirit of help for promoting fraternity in the society: Governor

On the special occasion of Raksha Bandhan, the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) conveyed his greetings to dear Arunachali brothers and sisters. He called for creation of a strong bond of love and trust amongst the people across all societies.

Interacting with social activists on the occasion of Raksha Bandhan at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 22nd August 2021, the Governor said that the festival of Raksha Bandhan honours the emotional bond of brothers and sisters, which flourishes on love, mutual respect, and compassion. He said that this festival is the best example of the unique place of affection traditionally accorded to women in our society.

The Governor urged upon the people to develop all inclusive tolerance and mutual respect and strengthen the spirit of help for promoting fraternity in the society. He appealed to the people to build brotherhood and goodwill to ensure National solidarity.

In view of the prevailing COVID-19 Pandemic, the Governor also appealed to the people to observe COVID-19 Pandemic Appropriate Behaviour and Protocols. He urged the people of the State to observe all precautions against the COVID-19 pandemic by effectively use of face mask, frequent washing of hands, social distancing, i.e. 'Do Gaz Ki Doori' and taking the COVID protective vaccine, its two doses, at the earliest, without any apprehension of any kind as these are safe for all.

PRO to Governor
