Governor extends Children's Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his sincere greetings to each and every citizen of the State in general, and to his beloved children of Arunachal Pradesh in particular on the special occasion of the Children's Day, the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, our first Prime Minister.

In his message, the Governor said that celebrating Children's Day is about giving a child, his or her right to enjoy and grow as a healthy and cultured citizen of the country. He said that the children are the future of a country and their moral and educational standards determine the progress of a Nation. Ensuring the bright growth of our children is of great national importance. Therefore, it is the prime duty of all of us to provide our children with our constitutional mottos of justice, liberty and equality, he said while appealing to all parents and guardians to instil good morals and virtues in their wards and groom them to be responsible citizens of the country.

On this occasion, I call upon every parent and guardian to provide to their children and wards, safe, dignified, honest, patriotic, industrious, and cultured atmosphere at home. Let us do our best to guarantee a better future for the children, the Governor said in his message.
