Governor extends World Red Cross Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), has extended his warm greetings to the members and volunteers of the Indian Red Cross Society, Arunachal Pradesh State Branch, as well as to all those devoted to humanitarian service on the special occasion of World Red Cross Day. He expressed hope that the year's theme, 'Keeping Humanity Alive' and 'United for Humanity', would further reinforce the spirit of compassion, solidarity, and selfless service that defines the Red Cross movement across the world.

In his message, the Governor said that World Red Cross Day offers all an opportunity to renew our commitment to the noble ideals of humanity, impartiality, neutrality, and voluntary service, the principles that continue to inspire millions in alleviating suffering and building resilient communities.

The Governor appreciated the commendable efforts of the Indian Red Cross Society, Arunachal Pradesh State Branch, for its dedicated work in advancing humanitarian causes, supporting disaster response, strengthening healthcare initiatives, promoting voluntary blood donation, and reaching out to the vulnerable and distressed. Through its unwavering spirit of service and volunteerism, the Society has rendered yeoman service and emerged as a beacon of hope for many. I hope this occasion will inspire greater participation of our youth in humanitarian endeavours, deepen community engagement, and reaffirm our collective responsibility towards those in need, he said.

May this observance encourage all of us to keep humanity alive through acts of kindness and service, and strengthen our resolve to stand United for Humanity in building a more compassionate, inclusive, and humane society, the Governor wished in his message.

PRO to Governor
