Governor hands over cheque to Abotani Vidya Niketan for strengthening school library

Governor appreciates Arunachal Shiksha Vikas Samiti and Abotani Vidya Niketan for their commitment to academic excellence and character building

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.), handed over a cheque of Rs. 2 lakh to Abotani Vidya Niketan, Pachin Colony, Naharlagun, at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar on 23rd July 2026 to support the strengthening and expansion of the school library. Miss Yanya Karlo,Vice Principal Abotani Vidya Niketan and Shri Sukumaran K, State Coordinator ASVS received the financial assistance. During his visit to the School on 28th June 2026, the Governor had announced the financial aid for provision of books to enrich the school library and promote learning.

A passionate reader himself, the Governor highlighted the transformative power of books in shaping young minds. He emphasized that reading is one of the most effective ways to nurture curiosity, critical thinking, creativity and lifelong learning among children. He said that a well-equipped library serves as a gateway to knowledge, broadens horizons and inspires students to dream big and achieve their aspirations.

The Governor noted that in an age dominated by digital distractions, cultivating a culture of reading among young learners has become more important than ever. He encouraged students to develop the habit of regular reading, describing books as trusted companions that enrich character, strengthen values and open doors to new ideas and opportunities.

Commending the Arunachal Shiksha Vikas Samiti (ASVS) for its dedicated efforts in promoting quality education through Abotani Vidya Niketan, the Governor appreciated the institution's commitment to academic excellence and character building. He also lauded the students for their discipline, enthusiasm and impressive turnout, expressing confidence that they would grow into responsible citizens and contribute meaningfully to the progress and development of the State and the nation.
