Governor calls upon the people to regard Lok Bhavan as a house of the people, dedicated to serving the welfare and progress of every citizen of Arunachal Pradesh

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, Lt Gen KT Parnaik, PVSM, UYSM, YSM (Retd.) inaugurated the new Governor Secretariat Building at Lok Bhavan, Itanagar on 5th August 2026. State Chief Minister Shri Pema Khandu, senior officers of the State Government, along with Governor Secretariat officials were present on the occasion.

Dedicating the building to the people of the State, the Governor said that Lok Bhavan truly belongs to the people of Arunachal Pradesh. He emphasized that the institution serves as a platform for dialogue, cultural exchange, youth engagement, and public outreach, bringing governance closer to the people.

The Governor called upon the people to regard Lok Bhavan as a house of the people, dedicated to serving the welfare and progress of every citizen of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor said that Arunachal Pradesh has made remarkable strides in development and Lok Bhavan will continue to remain accessible to citizens, students, entrepreneurs, artists, farmers, and representatives of civil society. He added that every visitor to Lok Bhavan should feel a sense of pride and ownership, as it represents the collective hopes, achievements, and rich cultural heritage of the State.

Appreciating the excellent quality and architectural grandeur of the building, the Governor said that Arunachal Pradesh is steadily setting new benchmarks in public infrastructure development. He noted that the State has successfully created iconic institutions that combine functionality, aesthetics, and modern engineering.

Citing the magnificent Arunachal Pradesh Legislative Assembly and the impressive High Court complex, the Governor said these landmark structures have earned widespread appreciation for their design, utility, and symbolic significance. He emphasized that such world-class infrastructure reflects the State's growing aspirations and commitment to good governance, while also showcasing Arunachal Pradesh's emergence as a progressive and forward-looking State in the country.

Congratulating the entire Lok Bhavan fraternity, the Chief Minister said that Lok Bhavan has emerged as a vibrant institution that connects people across regions, communities, and cultures. He noted that Lok Bhavan has consistently served as a common platform fostering unity, understanding, and a shared sense of belonging.

Describing Lok Bhavan as a symbol of inclusiveness and people-centric governance, the Chief Minister said that it has successfully bridged geographical distances and cultural diversity, creating opportunities for dialogue, mutual respect, and collective progress.

The G+1 building, constructed at a cost of ₹10.90 crore, has a plinth area of 1,424.63 square metres. Implemented by the Public Works Department (PWD), the project commenced on 24 February 2024 and is equipped with a centrally air-conditioned system, CCTV-based security surveillance, and lift facilities, ensuring comfort, accessibility, and safety, while enhancing service delivery and administrative efficiency.
