SLSA Chimpu to organize golf coaching camp in October

Itanagar, August 17: “I want more children to take part in sports camps”, said Arunachal Pradesh Governor Gen JJ Singh, on being informed that State Youth and Sports department is organizing another golf coaching camp at Sangey Lhaden Sports Academy (SLSA), Chimpu in the month of October.

Gen Singh, who was on a visit to the SLSA, Chimpu today, inspected the newly developed green at the Academy and also the golf driving range over there. Due to his love for the sports and to encourage children towards it, Gen Singh took initiative in the development of both projects. To further infuse interest in the game, he said, “we may allow once a week golfing in the Raj Bhavan Golf course. It will ensure that course at Raj Bhavan will remain functional in the future,” Governor added.

On the golf coaching camp, he said, part of the coaching may be conducted in the Raj Bhavan course and rest in the Academy. Ensure participation of more children, he stressed.

While appreciating the multi utility sports complex coming up at the Sangey Lhaden Sports Academy, Gen Singh suggested for proper drainage system around the activity area, Inform the RajBhawan release.
